It is a collection that appeals to many different groups of guests and will be savoured for many years to come.

In addition, her extensive knowledge and incomparable range of experience gained from various top European five-star hotels inspired her to come up with a decadent collection which combines the best of chocolate making techniques from Europe and the abundance of beautiful Vietnamese produce.

Impressed by the custardy and silky taste of Durian – the king of South East Asian fruits, Durian chocolates are created to swoon over those who excessively fond of sweet delicacies. Besides, Vietnamese Coconut Coffee would attract guests with its aromatic and subtle richness resembling the most beloved drink in town. Peach Black Tea, on the other hand, recalls the refreshing pleasure of drinking peach ice tea on hot humid summer days in Saigon. Last but not least, Raspberry Phu Quoc Pepper gives a hint of the significant pungency and heat from the Pearl island's pepper for an exciting and thrilling taste.
