THE JOURNEY OF OUR LEGACY FRAGRANCE

FROM PARIS TO SAIGON

Be it at home or in a hotel far from it, scent can always help trigger the memory we have of a destination.

As such, Park Hyatt Saigon collaborated with Parisian fragrance house Blaise Mautin – one of the world’s most exclusive, bespoke perfumers to create our signature scent that helps connect emotionally and mindfully with guests both during and after their stay.

As soon as you walk into the Park Hyatt Saigon’s lobby, you will be greeted with an unforgettable aroma: fresh light notes of bergamot, lemon, and geranium. You can sense the inexplicable comfort that awaits you there. By the time you’ve reached the reception desk, that has deepened into an exotic and floral combination of Rose, Jasmine, and Violette essence associated with the angelic roots and lavender. Last but certainly not least, the base notes which will stay forever in your memories are composed of a rich musk with santal wood, cedarwood, clove, and tree moss. But there is so much more to this signature scent than just the top, heart, and base notes. Its effect is fresh, cocooning, and instantly calming—letting your body ease up and telling you that, while you may have traveled far to get here, it’s finally home, time to breathe out and relax.

Blaise Mautin has spent almost a quarter of a century creating and perfecting the most incredible and elegant fragrances for the finest private clientele and the most celebrated 5-star hotels around the world. With Park Hyatt Saigon, Blaise went through a long journey searching for different ingredients, one of which is cashmere wood to craft this signature scent capturing the emotional impression on his first visit to the hotel. “It’s the impression of appeasement and instant relaxation as if you are being pampered by silk.” – said Blaise.

Park Hyatt Saigon will launch the signature scent this September with lots of memorable experiences awaiting its discerning guests to discover.

COCHINE REED DIFFUSER
PERFECT TOUCH OF LUXURY

With Cochine, you'll always find something special that lifts the spirits, soothes the soul and brings the inescapable romance of the tropics into your home, wherever you are in the world.

Remaining true to that original idea, Cochine Reed Diffuser containing the finest essential oils will visually and aromatically give your room a unique and subtle elegance. Arrange between 4 and 8 rattan reeds into the bottle of essential oil and let them absorb the oil to create a perfect background scent.

Visit Xuan Spa and bring home a Cochine Reed Diffuser to get a complimentary Cochine hand cream – the antidote for hands dried out by cold and endless harsh soaps and sanitizers, it's the perfect combination of luxury for now.

Ciao Saigon with a healthy breakfast at Opera restaurant, then start your day by taking a walk to Dong Khoi street – the most famous shopping quarter in the city. Along the street are boutiques from top international luxury brands, letting you have your most indulgent luxury shopping experience. As you stroll along the street, don't forget to visit local handicraft stores to look for the perfect souvenirs for your beloved ones. For those interested in architectural design, you will find French colonial designed landmarks around the quarter such as Opera House, People's Committee Building, Notre Dame Cathedral and Central Post Office. From this area, head along to Nam Ky Khoi Nghia street to visit the historical Reunification Palace.

Have a relaxing lunch at Propaganda, just across from the Palace. The restaurant offers a good selection of traditional Vietnamese dishes in a funky, laid-back ambiance. Its neighbour, Au Parc specialising in Mediterranean cuisine, is an excellent alternative if you are craving Western food. Leaving the restaurant, turn left to Le Loi street to get to the iconic Ben Thanh market, where you can experience the dynamics of a traditional local market and be dazzled by a variety of Vietnamese specialties. Be sure to visit the nearby Ho Chi Minh City Museum of Fine Arts before returning back to The Park for an afternoon refreshment at our tranquil swimming pool or a luxurious treatment at Xuan Spa.

A boat trip along Saigon river to experience the beauty of sunset is highly recommended. You will have a chance to explore beautiful landscapes, enjoy the fresh air, and get to know more about the daily life of locals living alongside the river banks. When the sun goes down, the city will light up, showing you a different face of crowded Saigon.

It's time for dinner! Indulge in a truly unique dining experience at our signature restaurant Square One, where the best of Vietnamese and French cuisines are complemented to perfection by our legendary culinary team. As night falls, the city turns vibrant with fun and exciting activities. Pass by 2 Lam Son to say cheers with a wide selection of international wines, premium spirits and an innovative assortment of signature cocktails while dancing the night away with an urban selection of designer music and live DJ performances.

Being a micro-influencer with more than 11,500 followers on Instagram, Nhan Hien Nhi is one of the most recognisable faces at The Park. Her passion for life has revolved around food, starting from watching food documentaries, exploring new restaurants to creating a blog where her own food journey is shared to a larger community.

Before joining Park Hyatt Saigon family, Nhi had opportunities to experience our Food and Beverage service and was impressed by how professional, knowledgeable and thoughtful the staff are. Outstandingly, Square One sparks her interest in working fulltime for a fine dining restaurant that brings her the sense of true luxury and gives her a chance to work with top professionals to sharpen her food and wine knowledge and perfect her customer service skills.

"I am always excited that every working day is a chance to learn new things." – shared Nhi. As a part of Square One, she gets to know how a luxury outlet is operated in reality, kindheartedly understands different stages of a customer journey and explores a boundless world of French and Vietnamese cuisine through the hands of acclaimed masters.

Who will be the next one joining our exciting journey at The Park?
