THE FEAST FOR THE SENSES

Good news for gastronomy lovers, Le Petit Chef has decided to extend his stay at Square One restaurant in Saigon.

This new and entirely innovative two-hour dining concept will bring visual mapping to the diner's table, using cutting-edge 3D visual technology to present the story of a small animated chef who is projected onto diners' plates to cook the food right in front of your eyes. Prepare yourself to be delightfully immersed into a continuous 3D-projected tale paired with sophisticated themed music, table patterns, props and decorations along each chapter of the story.

There will be two interesting shows at Square One which are Marco Polo and Le Grand Bistro. While Marco Polo is the little chef who goes around the world on a cooking adventure, Le grand bistro is centered around the chef's restaurant in France.

From Wednesday to Sunday, at the Kitchen Room located in Square One restaurant, there will be one show for lunch and two shows for dinner. You can treat yourself to different packages including the Business Class five-course menu at VND 2,300,000* per person, or upgrade to First Class for the premium five-course menu version for an additional VND 1,150,000* per person. A welcome drink is included and wine pairing packages are also available with Business Class Wine Pairing at VND 1,500,000* per person and First Class Wine Pairing at VND 2,500,000* per person. Limited to one communal table of 12 seats per show and all 12 guests will be sharing a table during the show.

THE DESTINATION WITHIN

Park Hyatt Saigon is a French Mansion by the Opera House, a sanctuary of peace in the middle of one of Asia's most bustling cities.

Despite first opening its doors to guests in 2005, Park Hyatt Saigon history dates back to 1950 when it was first built as The Brink Hotel, where the US military Generals and Officers stayed during the Vietnam War.

Among its best-known guests was Adrian Cronauer, a popular radio DJ for the US military, made famous by the movie 'Good Morning Vietnam!' His daily radio transmissions were broadcasted from this very site.

Elegant French colonial architecture combines classic luxury with personalised services and hand-crafted experiences, connecting discerning travellers with the local community.

THE SCULPTURE RATIONALE

For those who's in favour of our mansion, it's wisely known of the long-term commitment we have for excellent and constant improvement. That, indeed, reflects merely on our redefining luxury project, which has been undergone for 5 consecutive year and finished August 2019. The façade and fountain area of the hotel were some of the last enhancement with our utmost addition: Park Hyatt Saigon's symbolic sculpture.

Once look closely in certain direction, the sculpture can transform into a dove or a lotus. Depicting the combined symbol of freedom and peace yet elegant and gracious, lotus honoring our mansion's cultural spirit which stays true to historic Ho Chi Minh city while dove plays an interesting interpretation of the sculpture.
