From 26 July, Opera is proud to introduce a sumptuous international seafood dinner buffet served every Friday from 6 pm to 10 pm.

Indulge in an abundant selection of the best local and imported seafood from Japan and Europe, including three types of oysters, snow crabs and Canadian lobsters served with traditional condiments. Every table is presented with the famous homemade Opera pizza served piping hot.

There are six types of seafood to choose from, fresh from the market-style display and cooked exactly to your liking. Then, discover signature items on the raw bar such as yellow fin tuna and smoked Tasmanian ocean trout, which are used to prepare the freshest sashimi.

Aside from the buffet counter, our table-side trolley service is a truly playful sight, where exciting and lively dishes are prepared right in front of your eyes. Among the must-try items are our seafood paëlla and Pastry Chef Frédéric Guinot's famous baked Alaska flambé served to your table. For the finale, do not miss our homemade choux drizzled with the delicious hot sauce made from Marou chocolate and our wide selection of hand-churned homemade ice cream.

The buffet is priced at VND 1,599,000 per person – including soft drinks. Moreover, with an additional VND 300,000 per person, guests can upgrade to an exclusive drink package including Bisol Belstar Prosecco DOC Brut, house wines and cocktails.
